

2011 Special Recognition: The Morristown CraftMarket of the Kiwanis Club of Randolph Township

The Arts Council of the Morris Area is delighted to be able to honor the Kiwanis Club of Randolph Township with a Special Recognition Award for promoting the arts through The Morristown CraftMarket, its annual, nationally acclaimed charitable fine crafts show.

For 35 consecutive years, the nearly 60 volunteer members of the nonprofit Kiwanis Club of Randolph Township have spent thousands of volunteer hours to produce and run the Morristown CraftMarket, held annually in October at the National Guard Armory in Morristown. The show is a major cultural event, attracting thousands of visitors each year in addition to gifted artists from over 25 states throughout the country and Canada. The artists compete in a rigorous, nationwide selection process, and the panel of judges who are peer artists, choose the best in each arts category. Showcased in the CraftMarket are extraordinary, one-of-a-kind and limited edition fine crafts in all contemporary media. All proceeds from the Morristown CraftMarket benefit local charities. The show is one of only a handful of charitable fine crafts shows of its size in the country produced for the benefit of the community.

Therefore, with much pleasure, the Arts Council honors the Morristown CraftMarket and its official sponsor, the Kiwanis Club of Randolph Township, with this Special Recognition Award, - acknowledging 35 years of exceptional contributions to the cultural life of our community.

May 12, 2011

Would Janine Myer, President of the Kiwanis Club of Randolph Township, please come up to receive the award.