Welcome from the Morris County Board of Chosen Freeholders

The Morris County Board of Chosen Freeholders welcomes you to the Atrium Art Gallery and the hundreds of pieces it contains on a rotating basis.

Designed to fill the need in Morris County for a location for artists to exhibit their work, the gallery offers four floors of atrium and lobby space for exhibition in the County of Morris Administration and Records Building located on Court Street in Morristown.

The exhibitions have been viewed by hundreds of residents. Indicative of the support the Gallery has received from artists in Morris County and throughout New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania, is the long list of advance bookings and ongoing requests to exhibit.

The Art Gallery started in 1977 in a small waiting room in the former County Administration Building, now the Courthouse Annex. In this room, the Morris County Heritage Commission held numerous small exhibitions of paintings, prints and photographs by well-known New Jersey artists. The Heritage Commission continues to contribute artwork to the Atrium Art Gallery.

In January 2008, at the request of the County, the Arts Council of the Morris Area assumed oversight for planning exhibitions at the Atrium Gallery.

As you walk through the corridors viewing the artwork, the Board of Chosen Freeholders is certain you will enjoy the exhibition and be enriched by its contents.

Thomas J. Mastrangelo,
Freeholder Director

Morris Arts, located in Morristown, NJ, is a not-for-profit organization founded in 1973 dedicated to engaging and building community through the arts. Using the arts to inspire, connect and engage, Morris Arts serves as a resource for Morris County with a special focus on arts programming in the community and in the schools, arts advocacy, and support of the Morris Area community of artists and arts organizations. The New Jersey State Council on the Arts has consistently awarded the Arts Council its prestigious "Citation of Excellence" and designated it as a "Major Service Organization" in recognition of the Arts Council's "solid history of service excellence, substantial activity, and broad public service."

There is no charge to artists to exhibit at the Atrium Art Gallery and no commission is taken on sales of work exhibited at the gallery. Exhibits typically hang for periods of two-three months. For more information about exhibiting at the Atrium Art Gallery, please contact Dr. Lynn L. Siebert, Director of Arts Participation & Communication for Morris Arts, at (973) 285-5115, ext. 10 or Lsiebert@morrisarts.org.

CONTEMPORARY ART GROUP

The Contemporary Art Group is a non-profit, collegial organization of working artists who meet on a regular basis at Watchung Arts Center and exhibit their work together. CAG is a supportive group where there is mutual respect among members, where members exchange ideas, provide information about exhibit opportunities, and share their own artistic development.

At present, our members come from Hunterdon, Middlesex, Morris, Somerset, and Union Counties. Styles of our artwork run from abstraction to representation in the following media: acrylic, ceramics, charcoal, clay, collage, colored pencil, Conté crayon, encaustic, glass, ink, mixed media, oil, pastel, photography, printmaking, stone, and watercolor.

More information about Contemporary Art Group may be found at <http://www.contemporaryartgroup.org/>.

MYHELAN ARTISTS NETWORK 2nd Floor

May 16-September 3, 2014

L-R: Kim Griswold's mixed media, Untamed Heart; Mef Gannon's bead embroidery, Turning Towards the light; Dreams; Marianne Trent's acrylic, fabric, paper on wood, The Little Garden; Janet Leigh's mixed media, Glorious Gardens; Gail Mardfin's acrylic, Ten Tulips; Kristina Lloyd's photo (reclaimed wood frame), Make a Wish.

Myhelan Artists' Network is a supportive group of artists that meet in each other's homes, attend art related events and exhibit together. Native American linguist Lucy Blalock gave Myhelan its name (mah-hay'-lon), which means, in the Lenape language, "a gathering together of people." Long Valley based artists have been meeting since 1997 and over the past 15+ years the group has expanded to include all of Northern New Jersey. Members share knowledge and techniques while fine tuning their skills through informal, laughter-filled critiques that encourage and enrich individual creative pursuits.

A wide range of media is represented including: painting, drawing, photography, sculpture, beaded adornments, textiles, mixed media and mobile art. The artists maintain a web presence on Facebook, for insights please "like" our page at <http://www.facebook.com/myhelanartistsnetwork>. The group has exhibited at the Atrium Gallery three times through Morris Arts, as well as various other local venues.

Members exhibiting are:

- Hema Bharadwaj

Founded in 1965, the nonprofit Art Association in Roxbury was formed to further the appreciation of and increase interest in the Fine Arts within our community. The group is located in Succasunna, New Jersey, and most of the members reside in Morris and Sussex Counties. The membership includes artists of all levels of experience, from amateur to professional, as well as art patrons. The public is invited to join in AAR's educational programs, exhibits and demonstrations.

AAR meets monthly from September to June, except for January. Our meetings are held on the first Thursday of the month at the Roxbury Senior Center in Succasunna, N.J. They begin at 7:15 p.m. Guests are welcome.

One of the highlights of the season is AAR's traditional Members' Show, where members are given an opportunity to share and sell their work within the community. The art work is judged and ribbons and prizes are awarded at a festive reception.

We are happy to be having our 47th Annual Member's Show, after a year's hiatus, back at The Atrium Gallery.

Please visit our website at: www.artassociationinroxbury.org for more information.

For sales information, please contact Liz Wallace at (973) 383-9781 or e-mail at lilebet@yahoo.com; or Mike Dziomba at (973) 518-0559

BLACKWELL STREET CENTER FOR THE ARTS 5th Floor Atrium

In 1983, a group of local artists interested in establishing a permanent space in which to exhibit their work founded The Blackwell Street Center for the Arts as a cooperative gallery in Dover, New Jersey. Over the years, the group evolved, becoming a nonprofit corporation in 1989, with the additional aim of providing education and information on fine arts to the public in the form of lectures, seminars, workshops and community programs. In 1996, the Blackwell Street Center for the Arts became an internet "cybergallery" under the web name of "Blackwell St. Artists," shedding its physical location but remaining dedicated to its mission of exhibiting art, educating the public about art and providing opportunities in the visual arts to the larger community, especially students. Its members continue to mount exhibits at various venues throughout the metropolitan area. In recognition of its work over the years, The Blackwell Street Center for the Arts has received grants from the Dodge Foundation, Casio Corporation and the Arts Council of the Morris Area.

One of this organization's most outstanding contributions and important legacies in the arts is its annual Blackwell Street Juried Student Exhibit which, over the past 26 years, has grown enormously in size and scope and developed a reputation as one of the most prestigious exhibits for student artists in New Jersey. During the two-plus decades that this exhibit has existed, nearly 15,700 works of art by approximately 1,800 young artists have been selected, juried and professionally exhibited.

Additionally, BSCA has sponsored Hispanic and Irish Art exhibits; participated in First Night on New Year's Eve and has mounted exhibits at Lever House Gallery (New York City), Johnson & Johnson, Nabisco, and the Cork Gallery (NYC), to name just a few prominent examples. Member artists work in a variety of media and styles. All membership applications are juried by the current members. For information or to join, call (973) 337-2143, visit the website at: www.blackwell-st-artists.org or write to: Blackwell St. Artists/ PO Box 808 / Denville, NJ 07834-0808

On May 12, 2011, The Blackwell Street Center for the Arts received the coveted Outstanding Arts Organization Award from the Arts Council of the Morris Area for its outstanding work in promoting visual arts and particularly for its now 26 years of mounting the Blackwell Street Juried Student Exhibit.
