Planned by Morris Arts’ Carlos Sotoke, the Gateway Totem “mini summer series” has allowed artists of all backgrounds and artistic abilities to exhibit their work at the Gateway Totem plaza located at the Early Street Community Garden. These informal gatherings feature visual artists, musicians and cultural presentations—and will continue into the early fall. This year’s schedule included photography by Jake Santiago, music by Satrotskane, music by PJ Hurtman and will feature visual artist Emily Ross (on September 5th), Anna Stone and the D.U. J.C. on September 27th, Peter Allen, cheeks and Thrungpa’s informative display on Roman culture as well as music by Melina Onyi (on October 3rd).

All programs run from 5-7pm and are free and open to the public. So come meet some of the art stars of our community!

On October 29, 2018, from 7-9:30pm (VIP admission at 5:30-7pm), Gary’s Wine & Marketplace will once again host its fabulous Grand Tasting event at the Park Avenue Club located at 184 Park Avenue in Florham Park. This event features a stellar selection of premium wines, cocktails and craft beers, served with plenty of savory treats. Taste the best finds in wine and food and give back to our community all in one night. Gary’s Wine & Marketplace is committed to supporting the following charitable organizations located in the communities we serve, with proceeds to benefit Morris Arts, Atlantic Health Home and Hospice Care, Atlantic Health Gagnon Cardiovascular Institute and the Interfaith Food Pantry. Tickets go on sale in September and are available online at www.garys.com or any of Gary’s Wine & Marketplace retail locations in New Jersey (Madison, Wayne, Bernardsville and Hillsborough).

Gateways to the future …
Morris Arts/Dodge Foundation Gallery at 14 MAPLE to open new exhibit on September 20th

COMPASSION: Is it the Radicalism of Our Time?
On September 20, 2018 from 6-8pm, Morris Arts will host a free opening reception for the Gallery at 14 Maple’s twentieth exhibit entitled “COMPASSION: Is It the Radicalism of Our Time?” The Exhibition Committee of Morris Arts and the Geraldine R. Dodge Foundation selected works created by 15 outstanding artists (paintings, mixed media, prints, photography, sculpture, collage, and digital art) for display at the Gallery, a distinctive space located on the 3rd floor of the LEED certified “green” building at 14 Maple Ave., Morristown.

The exhibit features works by a highly diverse and distinguished group of artists, many of whom have had dual careers as curators, art directors, gallery founders and academic scholars. These include Anonda Bell (Morristown), Terry Boddie (Orange), Lisa Conrad (Newark), Cecily Cottingham (West Orange), Victor Davisen (West Orange) Dominique Duroseau (Newark), Adebummi Gbadebo (Newark), Dong Kyu Kim (Fort Lee), Steve McKenzie (Annandale), Paula Newes (Newark), Neil Painter (Newark), Kay Reese (Yonkers), Onsie Shreve (East Orange), Amanda Thackray (Newark) and Nathan Williams (Brooklyn, NY). Their artworks encompass highly varied perspectives on the exhibit’s central theme, Compassion, examining the multitude of interpretations of its role and place in modern life.
Music Beyond Borders 2018 — from Bali to the Balkans

You don’t have to wait in an airport, pack suitcases or endure a long flight to sample the world. Once again, the world’s cultural riches were available at Music Beyond Borders, the free, lunchtime world music-dance performances on the Morristown Green. Initiated in 2010, the ongoing collaboration between the Vail Mansion Foundation and Mayo Performing Arts Center (and multicultural graciousy provided by Morristown United Methodist Church) reflects the diversity of our own community and also shares the unique traditions, sights and sounds from distant continents and cultures.

Since it is free and takes place over lunchtime, Music Beyond Borders embodies Morris Arts’ mission of building community through the arts, bringing together people of all ages, backgrounds, professions and ethnicities who — for that special hour of the each performance — are united in a shared experience and enjoyment of world cultures.

On June 26th, crowds clapped hands, swayed and danced along to the joyously joyful rhythms of Random Test Reggae’s mellow Caribbean calypso and reggae music. Flying monkey kings, devils, fierce reggae reggae, and mellow Caribbean music. To see more photos along the August 7th performance by Eco Del Sur, the featured Balinese dance, enacting the battle between Good and Evil through their intricate, stylized, and elegant rendition of the Hindu epic, Ramayana. For the last 9 years, wedding moved Music Beyond Borders indoors. However, that did little to dampen enthusiasm for the musicians of Eco Del Sur, who shared ancient and contemporary Spanish music played on their fascinating variety of indigenous instruments (javanese, champastrang, etc.). They were paired with the August 7th performance by Twanche Grache, another NYC award-winning ensemble which featured the fiery and fascinating blend of Gypsy/Balkan/Balinese music from Eastern European roots.
